

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated was Founded on January 9, 1914 on the campus of Howard University in Washington D.C. for Men dedicated to the principles of Brotherhood, Scholarship and Service. The fraternity has members across the globe; each dedicated to fulfilling the dreams of our Most Honorable Founders A. Langston Taylor, Charles I. Brown, and Leonard F. Morse as expressed in the motto: "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity". Being able to provide these scholarships allows our Fraternity to promote the educational attainment of our youth.
